Dear Shimen -

Thank you so much for the invitation to speak to the Women of Vision Chapter of Iranian Jewish Women Organization and for all of your work putting it together. It was an honor to be among so many accomplished, intelligent, and interesting women. I learned so much and feel I may have gotten more from the experience than they did.

Thank you also for the lovely prism paper weight - a totally unexpected gift. I've put it in a window so I can watch the light change colors through the course of the day. Of course I will think of you and the other women when I see it.

And finally, thank you for the donation to MOSTE. Please know that your gift will make a difference in the lives of girls who really need it.

Warmest regards,

Lois

Dear Dr. Frankel, or if you don't mind Dear Lois,

It was an honor and pleasure to have your feature our event. That was my fourth opportunity to benefit from your Speaking Engagement, and the material was just as new, just as much fun to listen to, and just as effective to keep as a little voice in my head.

I am sharing this Thank You with our Women of Vision board members who, like our audience were and are inspired by such an accomplished, professional, yet so very likeable lady, who touches the audience with her warmth and smile, provides such useful insight, and practical career/people skill training.

I look forward to pass on your "tip of the day", info on your future events, etc. as I receive them on this e-mail to our www.IJWO.org mailing list, and I will also post your website info you provided below on our IJWO web site.

Thank You again,

Shimen

Every day there will be new posts with tips for professional women. I actually plan to write a post based on my experience last night and post it tomorrow. So if you could wait til tomorrow then forward the link to people on your mailing list I would be very grateful. Also, as you know, I send out longer monthly coaching tips and if people would like to sign up for those they should e-mail jessica@drloisfrankel.com and we'll add them to the mailing list.

Until next time -

Lois

Hi, Shimen. I want to thank you for the wonderful book on Iranian Jewish women that you sent me. It's so inspiring to read about and see the history. You are so thoughtful. Should I return it to you when I'm finished? I don't want to assume it's mine to keep.

I keep talking about the great experience I had with your group. In fact, at a meeting to discuss new scripts for the Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office television show I suggested they make one of the characters an Iranian Jewish woman and have her interacting with her mother! I don't know if they'll do it or not but I could just see it.

I hope all is well with you. Thank you again for your thoughtfulness.

Lois

Hi Lois, The book is yours to keep, and I consider it an honor having this book in your library of I am sure very many more valuable books that you own. I wanted to share with you the history of this organization, as it reflects Iranian Jewish women's impact as a (double) minority in a male-dominated islamic country.

I look forward to receiving your monthly tip, which I thought was planned for 2/15/08 (right?), to share with our organization mailing list.

Shabbat Shalom,
Shimen
